EDITORIAL NOTES

It is impossible to present a comprehensive picture on all the phases of C.T.I. life in a small volume like this. Only glimpses here and there have been captured—some portraying light, others solemn incidents. The caricatures, of course, are exaggerated happenings. The more solemn material was designed to stress activity and progress against the background of time. This may be seen in the action photographs of faculty and staff and in the articles. More space than ever has been reserved for pictures because of their unique way in telling the story.

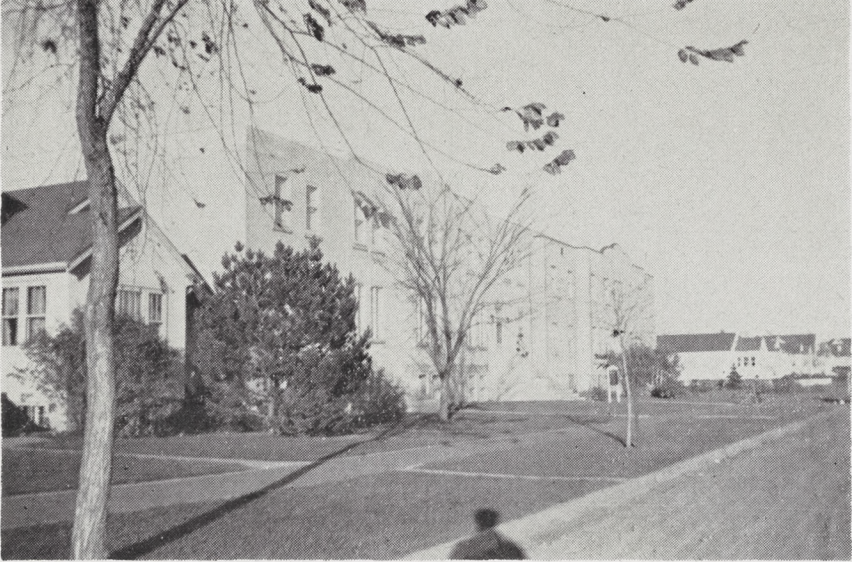

The entire volume is an expression of effort shared by a number of students, faculty members and others. The editor is especially indebted to Mrs. E. Link, Wm. McNab and Eleanore Otto for the artistic work; to Manetta Froehlich, Isabelle Bresch, Eddy Unger and Gunter Rochow for student biographies and picture arrangement; to Mable Steinert, Priscilla Sandau, and Ruth Haglund for the preparation of church greetings; and to Helen Herrmann and Ella Strauss for stenographic work.

It is the Editor's sincere hope that this issue will take the C.T.I. to the homes and hearts of its many friends and faithful supporters.

SEASONS OF THE SOUL

E. P. WAHL

God has ordered all things marvelously well. We are amazed as we behold the precision and wonder of all things. How true are the words of the Psalmist, "Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is high, I cannot attain unto it."

Much has been made known unto man about his own soul, only to find, however, that much more is yet to be discovered. Robert Browning has stated it well:

"And I have written three books on the soul,
Proving absurd all written hitherto,
And putting us to ignorance again."

Although the soul of man never grows old it does pass through various stages. There is a spring, a summer, a fall and winter. These all add to the maturing and ripening of the soul.

Each season of the soul has its peculiar needs and makes its particular demands. Moreover, every stage has its special significance. Great is our responsibility to give proper attention to the interests of the soul in its progressive movement. Charles Wesley, the hymn writer, felt deeply that

"A charge to keep I have,
A God to glorify:
A never-dying soul to save,
And fit it for the sky."

SEASONS OF THE SOUL

The church at all times must be alert to this duty. As Christians we learn from the beginning of the Bible to the end that we are our brother's keeper. We teach and preach, we work and pray, to meet our obligations towards the souls entrusted to us. No one understands more clearly than the child of God the truth, that whatever be of earth to earth returns, but the Soul of man, which is divine, escapes the wreck of worlds and goes forever seeking for a fuller life.

The Creator of the soul, our God knows best what the needs of the soul are. He understands fully its potentialities. It was He who fixed its goal. We, therefore, find through Him rich provision for every need in every stage. God's methods in dealing with the soul vary according to its maturity and are shown in abundance through the Scriptures. Hence, the ways for a fuller life are shown for everyone—the youth, the adult, the aged. Use God's Holy Word to mature and develop your soul. Thus, you will be ready to.

"Build thee more stately mansions, O my soul,
As the swift seasons roll!
Leave thy low-vaulted past!

Till thou at length art free,
Leaving thine outgrown shell by life's unresting sea!"—O. W. Holmes

YOUTH—LIFE'S SPRINGTIME

H. OLIVER OHSBERG

Spring brings with it new life, new hope, new expectations. This has its parallel in life in the period of time which is called youth. Who hasn't gazed upon the pure innocence of a babe and wondered what type of life would be developed in that person? Many have expressed the hope that the younger generation will correct the mistakes of the present generation and improve the world situation.

The Scriptures state, "Your young men shall see visions" Joel 2:28. It is through visions that things are accomplished and visions are needed in the present time. To the young, with zeal and fervor, comes the vision of what needs and can and must be done, not only in regard to world events but more important in the promotion of the Kingdom of God.

Before anything can be accomplished or progress made there must naturally be life. Man is entrusted with life from birth. But an even more important life and the life that is needed is that which is from above—spiritual. There must be springing up within man that spiritual life which comes only through a vital relationship and union with Him who gives life—the Lord Jesus. This life should flow into the individual in the spring time of his age. "Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth, . . ." Ecclesiastes 12:1.

In nature if the fruit tree, for example, is to abide and bear fruit several characteristics must be present. For one thing that tree must, while still young, send its roots down deep into the soil and rock and gain a firm hold upon the earth. If such is not done, the least wind that may blow will do great harm to the tree. In life the winds that blow are adverse and violent at times. Because of this, life, in its youth, must needs be rooted and grounded on the Rock so that adversities and storms will not damage it. This is accomplished by studying the Word of God and communing with God in prayer. Consider the relative periods of time required for the fruit tree to develop before it begins bearing fruit. Consider also the amount of time required for the preparation of such men as Moses, David and the Lord Jesus.

The Scriptures present a description of that person who has made proper and adequate preparation during youth for the time yet to come in these words from Psalm 1:3, "He shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper."

LIFE'S SUMMER DAYS

E. B. LINK

"Now learn the parable of the fig tree. When his branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, yet know that summer is nigh." Yet in spite of the many signs of their coming, life's summer days come quickly, almost imperceptibly on the stage of life.

Summer days are days of development. The seed sown and started in spring grows and matures in summer. Mother Nature's mighty forces are deeply concerned about growth. The sun's rays keep it warm and provide the energy for its internal factory. The clouds tip their over-flow and give water in abundance to wash it and quench its thirst. The soil stays close to protect and feed the life. Indeed, the Maker provides for life in the making at every stage.

Considering the growth of the fields in summer, we learn of the Creator's care for human life in its summer days. The growing Christian can bathe in the "Son"-shine of God's love, and breathing in the breath of God he is sustained and energized. Mercy drops, yea showers of blessing pour down from the overflow of His Grace to make the Christian's life abundant. Though He is the God of the Heavens, He is nearer than hands or feet and feeds the hungry soul daily manna. Life's summer days thus are happy days in which all vital needs are met and all desires for the day are satisfied.

But what about the famine caused by the overbearing sun, the drought, the waste when the earth is unstable? Misery may rule in nature even amid summer. There may also be misery in life's summer days, when Christian growth is stifled and joy and victory depart. It is then that Faith and Hope must take a hold. Let the Christian learn to rely on the promises of the Heavenly Father that from all famine, drought and waste he may step off into the Promised Land of plenty. Let him recall Calvary where—the Son of righteousness was shut off from the sun of nature and the earth quaked and trembled beneath His Cross. Then let him think of Easter and look at the empty tomb. Thus life's summer days may be days of victory through faith in Jesus Christ our Lord.

THE JOYS OF HARVEST

O. R. SCHMIDT

The Christian's joy has its sources in God Himself. Psalm 16:11 "Thou wilt show me the path of life; in Thy presence is FULNESS OF JOY". The joys of harvest of a Christian life are "joy unspeakable and full of glory". The joy of satisfaction of a life lived in the centre of God's will, the joy of peace of mind of a life lived in preparation for eternity—these bring FULNESS OF JOY. It is JOY ABUNDANT and JOY ABIDING!

RIPE AGE—

As we achieve maturity a spiritual balance sheet showing our gains and losses and our actual standing affords thought for reflection. "He that layeth up treasures for himself, is not rich toward God!" To be rich toward God is to possess what Jesus calls the "true riches". It is to be rich in faith, in love, in hope, and in service to God and man. Therefore, in making up life's balance sheet those only are wise who take account of their spiritual gains and losses that they may find out whether they are growing richer toward God, or merely toward man. There is an increase that is not of God. All outward increase if unaccompanied with spiritual increase is of the world and will count for nothing in the day of final reckoning. Paul in writing to the Colossian church uses the striking phrase, "INCREASING WITH THE INCREASE OF GOD." That is increasing with the increase which God produces and with which He is satisfied.

THE SUMMONS—

"Those that be planted in the house of the Lord shall flourish in the court of our God. They shall still bring forth Fruit in Old Age." Psalm 92:13-14 and "Even to your Old Age . . . will I carry you." Isa. 46:4. If a life has been "planted in the house of the Lord" we can say the Last of Life is the Best! Old age may be received with equanimity and even anticipation. It has its own satisfaction. Rich experiences, ripe judgment, tolerance born of understanding, the matured fruition of long preparation—these are gifts which only come with the passage of many years. Above all, there is the assurance of a tested faith. He who has led the long way can be safely trusted to guide until the journey's end. As the life span lengthens, the life expectancy shortens, and death, which has conveniently seemed an indefinite distance ahead, becomes an immediate possibility and an impending certainty.

THE JOYS OF HARVEST

(Concluded)

Only thus can we be assured the FULNESS OF JOY and experience. Acts 20:24, "THAT I MIGHT FINISH MY COURSE WITH JOY!"

"While the earth remaineth, seed time and harvest, and cold, and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night shall not cease."

Genesis 8:22

JOE TJOSVALD:

He is the "Einstein" of the class. To head the class is easy for Joe because he sits in the front row. He is rather shy and quiet, but has his share of fun playing Ping Pong.

ESTELLA TRASTER:

Although Estella has become part of the student body, she does not live at the school. As a true and faithful witness everywhere, she hopes to go into Foreign Mission Work soon.

EDDY UNGER:

Eddy is quite versatile and can be used almost anywhere in school activities. He is efficient whether in the male or mixed Quartet, or at the keyboard of our Chapel piano. He is a ready listener to students problems, yet is always ready to pull off a prank which he calls, "a good one."

KENNETH UNGER:

The first impressions of Ken may reveal a serious minded and reserved fellow but we know he is full of tricks and laughter. Diligent in his studies, he is growing in his spiritual life.

IDA WAHL:

This little brown eyed girl came to Edmonton from Medicine Hat. She is a sincere Christian who studies hard. She teaches a Sunday School class and faithfully does her task on the laundry shift.

"Well! Show your face."

BETTY WEGNER:

Betty keeps everyone happy with her witty remarks and jokes. Faithfully serving in a trio, she always has a ready testimony.

BEVERLY WHITEHEAD:

She is a very active girl who has a ready testimony. Besides singing in a mixed quartet, she faithfully serves the students in the coffee-shop.

ELEANORE WIESER:

Good things come in small packages!! Eleanore's charming smile has wended her way into all hearts. She is eager to serve her Lord and has been busy doing House Visitation.

GORDON WIESER:

Are all the little boys in bed? Beware, the student council is checking again! Gordon's pet peeve is rapid dictation. He teaches a class of boys each week.

REINHOLD WILDE:

"Why do I have to take mathematics to be a preacher?", is Reinhold's biggest problem. He takes both his studies and his Christian life seriously.

WALTER WITTENBERG:

Walter doesn't want to be disturbed too often: he takes a full High School course and most of the First Year Bible School subjects.

LUELLA WOLFF:

Luella brightens dorm life with her original pranks. She is the most studious student of the Sophomores, for she always has her assignments done. She has a glowing testimony for her Lord.

HULDA ZIEMER:

This earnest girl leads an active Christian life at school. She teaches a Sunday School class, and is gifted with a fine soprano voice which she uses in Choristers. She studies diligently and has a glowing testimony.

BETTY ZINK:

Betty has a cheerful smile for everyone she meets, and helps brighten dorm life with her pranks. She is faithfully preparing herself for future service, especially in the nursing field.

LAWRENCE ZINK:

Nothing to do in spare time? Lawrence has no trouble keeping himself occupied: he enjoys eating pie and playing records. He is busy keeping up with his studies.

CURRICULUM

The High School Department

The Courses offered in the High School Department are those of the Alberta High School Curriculum. A full grade X, XI and XII program is offered in our two-room High Schools. This course of study offers university matriculation. In case of specialized training the students may avail themselves of correspondence courses. These too, however, can be taken while students reside at C.T.I.

The C.T.I. High School classes run on the same daily time schedule followed by other high schools. As their time permits, the High School students take part in C.T.I. extra curricular Activities and in practical Gospel Team Work.

The Bible School Department

The Curriculum of the Bible School Department has been designed to realize the aims set forth by the Christian Training Institute. These aims are briefly:

1. To provide a thorough knowledge of the Bible;
2. To prepare for practical Christian service in the form of teaching and evangelistic pursuits;
3. To train in music with an emphasis both upon the practical and theoretical sides, and to provide an understanding of the place of music in the church;
4. To instruct in missionary endeavor, tracing the historical course of missions and preparing for practical missionary service;
5. To lead the student into a deeper spiritual life that makes for consecration and growth.

Combined Bible and Commercial Courses

This course aims to train young people for the business world, giving the student the advantage of developing the spiritual life in preparing for greater Christian service under the most favorable conditions. The business college subjects are taken at the reliable Alberta College. Charges for the business course selected will be exactly what the Alberta College charges for such instruction. Prices will be gladly submitted to any student interested.

The following courses can be taken:

BOOKKEEPING COURSE—This prepares the student for office work as bookkeeper and accountant.

STENOGRAPHIC COURSE—The student is trained in shorthand, typewriting, stencilling, correspondence, office routine, filing, penmanship, spelling, dictaphone and comptometer operation.

SECRETARIAL COURSE—Students that have good academic standing are recommended to take this course. It paves the way to higher and better-paid positions.

Students wishing to take a Bible-Commercial course will kindly write and inquire about the length of the term. Student's academic standing and type of work selected will determine the time needed to complete the work.

FREE-WILL SUPPORT

Our churches and friends, desirous of assisting as many as possible to take advantage of the training the C.T.I. has to offer, help to supply the school kitchen. It is such liberal support that makes it possible to offer so much for so little money. We appreciate the deep interest our churches take in the youth of today, and hope they will continue in supporting in prayer and donations this worthwhile work, for it is an investment that pays the best dividends.

PERSONAL NECESSITIES

Each student should bring from home, besides his clothing, toilet necessities and personal effects, the following equipment for his dormitory room: pillow, bed sheets or blankets, pillow cases, blankets, (quilts), towels.

OBLIGATIONS

Students are expected to keep their rooms neat and tidy at all times.

To every student will be assigned some definite house or janitor work or chore.

Every student is expected to behave at all times as becomes a Christian man or woman.

No one who wastes his time or whose influence is found not to be good, or who does not obey the rules will be allowed to stay.

RULES OF THE INSTITUTE MUST BE STRICTLY OBEYED BY ALL STUDENTS!

GREETINGS and FELICITATIONS TO THE CHURCHES

My Dear Brethren:

With the words of the Apostle Paul to Philemon I wish to greet you: "Grace to you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ."

One of the finest things wherein God can bless us is FRIENDS. You, our churches, are our precious friends in the Lord. As Grimoald, the writer, expressed it: "Of all the heavenly gifts that mortal men commend what trusty treasure in the world can countervail a friend?"

You have faithfully stood by. You have taken us to your heart—students, faculty, staff and the ministry of the Bible School. Our daily tasks have been lightened because of your love. Indeed we long have learned we could not do without you.

May we encourage you to continue praying and labouring for the school and all for which it stands. Let us keep on bringing our youth to the heart of God that they may be molded and formed more and more into the image of our Lord and Master.

God bless you all, our churches. We want you to know "we have great joy and consolation in your love."

Yours in the Lord,

E. P. WAHL
